WHEAT reached 99 1/2 cents at Chicago on Tuesday.

BEGIN the new year right by sending your distant friends or kinfolks THE BEE for the year. They would like to hear from you thus with all the news every week.

A HAPPY and prosperous New Year to every reader of THE BEE and may they grow and increase mightily. Add the name of your neighbor to our list and send us his subscription.

The political busybodies are busy as usual. Reports were sent out from Washington saying that Secretary Gage had offered his resignation to the President. Mr. Gage now denies that such is the case, and the reporters will probably wait awhile before they make the same statement again.

THE BEE has taken no rest for the holidays but has been issued without omission of any number. But there has of course been some unavoidable loss of time from work in the observance of Christmas, and we trust that if THE BEE is short at all in any department this week that our readers will take it charitably and with indulgence. We wish you a happy New Year.

OWENBRO is likely to place a license fee of $500 upon the sale of cigarettes by any dealer. This of course will be prohibitive. The movement is started by an organization of young ladies called the M. A. I. D. S. and is being signed by the business men. This suggests the possibility of such good work by the ladies in many places. The cigarette has come to be called the "cotton nail."

DUN & Co.'s weekly trade review said last week that "the weekly reports show a remarkably large holiday trade, at many points the largest for five years. Moreover, at the season when wholesale business usually shrinks the pressure of demands for immediate deliveries, which results from unprecedented distribution to consumers, keeps many establishments at work that usually begin their yearly rest somewhat earlier."

AN amusing mistake occurred last week in the write-up by Mrs. Whitson in THE BEE. That lady furnished copy which contained the statement that the St. Bernard Coal Company put out at least "sixty walnut trees a year." The article was set up according to copy. But what was meant to be said was that about sixty bushels of walnuts are planted annually, thus increasing the large stock of young walnut trees being grown in waste places by that company.

ANOTHER gerrymander of the Congressional districts of the State is promised by some of the Democratic papers. That is they promised that the coming Legislature, which is overwhelmingly Democratic, will change the districts to increase that parties strength. In this prearranged scheme Muhlenberg is promised to the Second district.

It is a fact that we could use a few more Republican votes in the Second and if the Democratic Legislators must gerrymander we will try to divide the joys of a minority with Muhlenberg and its half a thousand Republican majority.

Would "Gather" The Bee.

The following from the Livingston Banner is unneighborly to say the least.

The Earlington Bx was out in flaming divisions during the present season. Mann, while on his recent tour, Missouri had the good fortune to see the "Only Republican Newspaper" in the Second District. Well, we think it would be better off if it did any. It was remembered that a new defect Gold Standy. How this place last fall, inent history, Republican circuit the use of red ink to the State, it will soon be like the "father's"—Livingston up it. "Gather" the Banner let THE BEE's beautiful red headlines, printed above a clean, handsome and newsy paper, if THE BEE wants red headlines and continues able to do that or any other sort of printing well and handsomely. What is it to the Banner if we tell the truth and embellish our paper? A little more attention given to these two essentials of newspaper making would make some papers handsomer and more readable.

But the Banner would have THE BEE "gathered to its fathers."

And wherefore? Because, forsooth, it is the one Republican newspaper in the Second Congressional district. Well, THE BEE has lived eight years, is a Republican paper and has not yet been "gathered." And we trust the Republicans of the district and unbiased friends of honest effort who may not be Republicans to continue to stand by THE BEE and put off the "gathering" yet a little longer.

Henry West and Miss Mary E. Sutton were happily married at the residence of Mr. Dick Palmer Wednesday night.

Elder I. H. Fox, of Earlington, officiating.

Miss Jonell Galloway is visiting friends in Louisville this week.

SHELTON.

Christmas is here, boys and girls, with its comes Santa Claus with his fire-crackers and candies.

Messrs. G. W. Rayborn, Mat Polley, Reynolds Pressley and others went to Morganfield Thursday.

Mr. H. S. Shelton went to see the Christmas tree at Sigler school house yesterday.

Mr. G. B. Shelton killed two birds with his air gun the first day.

Boys, you should see Eddie Edwards, agent for our new laundry and dye works before sending your laundry elsewhere.

A few more days and we will have a full set of new county officers in Webster from representative to constable. Judge Hall is the newest of the new. He is only twenty-one years old. He was elected by the county Court Judge since Andrew Jackson was president. W. K. Price, our next Circuit Court Clerk, said, last winter, that some people thought they would have to build an elevator to hoist him up to the court room, but he said, "Not so, boys, you can pull me up by the neck cheaper than you can build an elevator. We think if they will build a good windmill and give Tom Page a few days to fatten up in he can certainly jerk Mr. Price to the second story of the Court House without any trouble."

What is the matter with our Popocatecalt brethren? Has dollar wheat and ten-dollar tobacco paralyzed them? We see Uncle John Sherman has been calling on them to explain some of their pet theories, but they have not yet undertaken it. Show up, boys, or own up that you can't do what you should do. BUCKSKIN JIM, Shelton, Ky., Dec. 25, 1897.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS.

Mr. F. O. Walsh, Master Mechanic of the L. & N. shops at Montgomery, Ala., spent Christmas at Howell, Ind., with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Walsh.

"Jim" Burwick, an old Panhandle freight conductor, whose run was between Loganport and Chicago, used to boast his reputation as one of the "toughest" of railroad men. He is now a Y. M. C. A. worker, and he says: "I used to start my train with an attitude, a cork-screw, but now I start it with a prayer."

P. M. Arthur, Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, is ill with pneumonia.

L. & N. earnings for the third week in December were $442,915, an increase of $22,700 over last year.

Operator Sam Jamison is now in the West on a pleasure trip.

Agent Charles Mann, of Pembroke, can and will defend himself when necessary as was shown lately when forced to do so.

Many are the expressions of regret heard on all hands on account of the resignation of Superintendent Dickson. The employees on the St. Louis and Henderson divisions have become so much attached to him that it grieves them to see him leave.

Agent Etheridge entertained some friends at his home last Sunday, and the boys speak highly of the sumptuous feast spread before them.

While the requests for a leave of absence in order to spend Christmas at home, were many but few were granted to the men on account of the rush of business.

Conductor Joe Powers is back from Hot Springs much improved in health, and expects to resume work soon.

An Abscess

In the Stomach Caused Great Suffering—Was Confined to the Bed But Now Able to Work.

"In October, 1895, I had an abscess in my stomach. I was also taken with pleurisy and coughed very badly. I was treated by physicians but did not improve. I gave up all hope of ever getting well. My right side was swollen and I was not able to walk across the room and was confined to my bed. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and began taking it. In three days I could see a change for the better. I kept on taking Hood's Sarsaparilla until I had taken four bottles and continued to improve. I am now able to do a good day's work on the farm." M. Mr. Beason Long, an old farmer died at his home near this place Thursday. He was eighty-six. Lived and died in the house in which he was born. He was buried within 50 feet of the house. He never was out of the State but once and then he went to Clarksville, Tenn., to sell a hoghead of tobacco. The Long family is noted for its longevity. John Long died in August aged 91. Mrs. K. Armstrong died in July aged 78. Redmon Long, the only survivor, is 84 years old.

A LIVE SANTA

Visits the Madisonville Sunday-School Scholars With Christmas Tree and Gifts.

NEWS NOTES OF THE COUNTY SEAT.

Madisonville, Dec. 29.—Santa Claus visited the children of the Methodist Sunday School Monday night at the M. E. Church, South. The old fellow was handsomely represented by E. K. Walker, the bustling and fun loving agent of the L. & N. Railroad. He made his entrance in true railroad style, and his exit did. He was wheeled in on a milk wagon, and in a mammoth goods box, which was opened to let out this seething hot Santa in fur coat and whiskers and all the arctic paraphernalia belonging to that popular saint.

Nobody can doubt a good time was had. And it was very amusing to hear this Santa Claus call out the names of the children as they were little boys when he came to their names on the register. The calling of "Johnnie" Glenn and "Buddie" Bishop and "Jodie" Cully and "Inky" Bailey and "Hen" Murphy and "Roly" Jones, etc., was attended with little amusement.

When the distribution was completed, in true railroad and business style, Santa Claus was ordered by a telegram from Paducah where the people were waiting his arrival.

The decorative work is being done on the inside of the Morton bank building.

Jim Pritchett expects to be able to move into the new Holman building within a week or so, as the shelling and inside work is about finished.

At the court house frequent inquiries can be heard for the "new" circuit clerk or the "new" sheriff, etc., etc. All things will be new about the temple of justice in a little while.

WANTED—TRUSTWORTHY AND ACTIVE gentleman or lady for responsible position, established house in Kentucky. Monthly $50.00 and expenses. Position steady. Refer to the Madisonville Commercial. The Dominion Company, Dept. R, Chicago.

Retire the Greenbacks!

One of the subcommittees of the monetary commission now sitting in Washington will investigate the several causes of the present monetary situation, and of devising a plan for the retirement of the greenbacks without causing a contraction or other disturbance of the currency.

This is one of the most important subjects that the commission will have to deal with. It has engaged the attention of our best financial experts for many years past, including several secretaries of the treasury, and it is the unanimous opinion of those best qualified to judge that the greenbacks should be retired.

At the time they were issued it never allured the mind of any person that they were to remain permanently outstanding. The fact that they were on their face government promises to pay was construed as meaning that they were to be redeemed and retired when they had served their purpose at the disposal of the government.

This process of redemption and retirement began soon after the war, but it was stopped by congress and a law was passed that when redeemed they should be reissued. From that time to the present they have been a trouble breeding factor in our currency system.

This process of redemption and retirement began soon after the war, but it was stopped by congress and a law was passed that when redeemed they should be reissued. From that time to the present they have been a trouble breeding factor in our currency system.

No doubt Secretary Gage will recommend that in his first annual report of congress, and he may suggest a definite plan for accomplishing it. Between his plan and the one the monetary commission will offer congress will have no difficulty in formulating one that will be safe and feasible and that can be carried out without causing any disturbance in our currency system.—Indianapolis Journal.

Silver Issue Dead.

Ex-Governor Horace Boies of Iowa is still sticking pins in the 10 to 1 ratio of the silver dollar. In a letter made public on Oct. 12 he discusses his new bullion basis theory and concludes as follows: "It is said that no plan of that character would be in accord with the Chicago platform. That is true. But the Chicago platform has had its day in court, before the tribunal of last resort. Must Democrats, to be loyal, adhere to it forever? The objection is at variance with the whole theory of our form of government. If valid elections would settle nothing, majorities would cease to rule, and a political chaos would ensue. It would be a political chaos, or the other of the parties to it was totally annihilated."

Welcome the Young Men.

Blessed is that church whose doors are ever being opened by young men anxious to find a place within her fold. You need never tremble for the church whose pews you see filled with young men in love with the gospel message. But you cannot keep them if you allow them to remain idle. They must be put to work. They are anxious that their talents be utilized. They love the church and long to see her prosper, and they crave a place that they may aid her advancement. This desire should be cultivated and encouraged.—Rev. J. G. Wilson in Philadelphia Methodist.

THE IMPOVERISHED STATES.

They Are the Most Rapid Accumulators of Wealth in the World, Says A.

The inhabitants of the Pacific of America (in which term M. hall, in his concluding article of Progress of the United States' North American Review, includes rado, Utah, Montana, Idaho and ming as well as California, Ne Oregon and Washington) are by far the richest accumulators of wealth in the world.

In the 20 years preceding the census they laid up four times as much treasure on earth as did Americans generally, their annual increase of rich per capita being $150, as against $17 for the whole Union. Their farms yield more than twice as much grain as the average American farm—30 tons to the farmhand, as against 23 in the prairie, 7 in the southern, 8 in the eastern and 14 in all the states. They have ninefold their total wealth in 20 years, 17 of those years elapsing since the "crime" (which they invented and lament) "of 1873." They were worth $27,000,000 in 1870 and $8,111,000,000 in 1890. Since that year, as before that year, they have enjoyed annually the advantages shared by none of their fellow Americans of taking 55 tons of one precious metal (gold) and 1,500 tons of the other precious metal (silver) out of the ground. This yearly product, worth $100,000,000, "exceeds," according to this authoritative statistician, "the value of precious metals that any country has yet produced in the history of mankind."

But this wealth is a mere additional godsend, a windfall, to people enriched already in the ordinary industries of their country. Their precious metal output is little over a third of the agricultural product of $294,000,000 a year. It is not very much more than a fourth of their manufacturing output of $860,000,000 a year, which quadrupled in the 20 years between 1870 and 1890.

These are the "whole states" whom a temperate and discreet "hmetallist" English authority on American affairs, Mr. Moreton Frewen, saw "goaded into fury" by the lash of poverty which the gold standard laid on their ragged backs. These are the people to whom in 15 years we, the rest of the country, the $39 average wealth people, the 14 ton average grain people paid $450,000,000 for silver worth $252,000,000.

These are the states which, one and all (save California and Oregon), threatened and even refused to take the whole of one of their less important products at two prices and told them to go to the regular market with their silver as well as their lumber and their grain. These are the people who have made a national and an international monetary and industrial wrangle of the question, not as to whether this single one of their industries should be suppressed, or even suspended, but as to whether they should receive a profit of 100 or 400 per cent on its product.

And all this with no feeling of anger or scarcely of irritation that the rest of us—$39 Americans—contemplate the collected proof of the thoroughness with which we have been "done" by these $156 Americans, who have been crying all the time that we were eating them up with the world's resources, and that these brethren of ours, by plying threats of our repudiation of our foreign debts, have cozened the old lady of Threadneedle street into an offer to take some $35,000,000 of their wares off their hands, we fall prostrate in reverence before their argent shrine of St. Bunko.—New York Press.

He who keeps his tongue in his heart is smart, but he who keeps it in his head is much the wiser for it.—Jewish Messenger.

Prudence and Providence.

No one can be provident of his time who is not prudent in the choice of his company.—Helpful Thoughts.

Modern Treatment of Consumption

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Scott's Emulsion

contains the best cod-liver oil in a partially digested form, combined with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This remedy, a standard for a quarter of a century, is in exact accord with the latest views of the medical profession. Be sure you get SCOTT'S Emulsion.
